HENRY FORD ANSWERS $100,000 DAMAGE SUIT

Detroit Manufacturer Claims "Privilege" in Making Statements.

Through his attorneys, Henry Ford, millionaire manufacturer, of Detroit, yesterday accepted service of the papers in the Navy League's $100,000 damage suit for alleged libel and filed his answer in the District Supreme Court. The suit was filed last May, following the appearance of an advertisement in a local newspaper over the signature of Mr. Ford in which he made certain charges against the Navy League of the United States.

The defendant states in his answer that the charges he made "are true in substance and fact" and that they are privileged. He claims privilege because of the fact that the charges were a matter that concerned the whole people of the United States and that they had been published in the public press and uttered by statesmen in their speeches, and that in his knowledge they had never been denied.

Mr. Ford is represented by W. C. Sullivan, of this city; Alfred Lucking, of Detroit, and Stephen G. Portner, of Pittsburgh.

The Navy League is represented by Henry B. F. Macfarlane, former District Commissioner, and former Assistant Secretary of War Henry Breckinridge.

OPERATORS PROTEST B. & O. COAL RATES

The Pittsburgh Vein Operators' Association, the members of which are coal mine operators owning mining properties in Ohio, yesterday filed a complaint with the Interstate Commerce Commission that the Baltimore and Ohio and other trunk line railroads maintain excessive rates on coal from Ohio mines to points in Michigan and Indiana.

Under present rates, it is charged, Ohio coal cannot be sold to points in those States in competition with coal shipped from Kentucky, West Virginia and Tennessee.

MAJ. GEN. ALESHIRE PUT ON RETIRED LIST

Maj. Gen. James B. Aleshire, quartermaster general of the army yesterday afternoon was retired on account of ill health. Secretary of War Baker approved the findings of the retiring board which recommended retirement.

DAM IN ROCK CREEK URGED FOR SWIMMERS

Thomas Grant Suggests New Improvement for Capital Bathers.

Probably the most distinctive improvement which will be suggested to the Commissioners as the result of their recent request to the various Citizen Associations of the District, that lists of improvements needed in different localities be submitted to them, is one outlined yesterday by Secretary Grant of the Chamber of Commerce.

The suggestion embodies a project which includes the damming of Rock Creek in the upper northwest section and the building of concrete swimming and bathing pools therein.

"The present District pools," says Mr. Grant, "are entirely inadequate for the needs of the people of Washington, especially those who live in the northwest section, and their location inconducive to the health of the people in the habit of patronizing the Municipal baths."

The trip to Philadelphia will be on September 21.

Kallipolis Gratto will meet Friday at the New Willard Hotel to make plans for the convention of the Supreme Council of the order, which takes place in this city next June. William F. Gude is chairman of the convention committee.

CAPITAL TO HAVE FINE
OPEN-AIR THEATER

Work has begun on the open air amphitheater on the Monument Grounds, which when completed, will offer one of the finest facilities for open air pageants and civic demonstrations of any city in the country.

The site selected is the sloping lawn on the south side of the shaft where 5,000 people can watch the movements on an elevated stage at the foot of the slope. There will be no structures within the enclosure, wing tents being used as dressing rooms. The stage will be eighty feet wide and fifty feet deep and will be embowered on the rear and sides by trees and shrubs.
